

Skyline Church

Sermon Notes • August 4 & 5 • Dr. Jim Garlow

Quick Overview of Carol Garlow's Healing Journey Towards Health

- Mon., June 18 – minor surgery
- Tues., June 19 – 5 pm – came home from hospital
- Tues., June 19 – midnight, to Emergency Room due to discomfort
- Wed., June 20 – 7 am – CT Scan reveals a “mass”
- Wed., June 20 – 3 pm – Gynecologist (Dr. Omidi) insists Carol get to hospital immediately
- Thurs., June 21 – MRI reveals multiple masses, reported at 5:30 pm
- Fri., June 22 – 1 pm – Sigmoidoscopy confirms that it is not colon cancer
- Fri., June 22 – 2 pm – CT Guided Biopsy was to be done
- Fri., June 22 – 4 pm – a Gynecologic Oncologist (Dr. Bahador) becomes involved and indicates there will be no more tests; debulking (surgery) must be done
- Sat., June 23 – surgeon explains surgical procedure
- Sun., June 24 – surgeon explains more of the procedure
- Mon., June 25 – prep for surgery begins
- Tues., June 26 – 7 hour and 15 minute surgery takes place, in which over 100 tumors are removed, the largest being the size of an orange; the following was done:
  - Omentum removed (largest mass removed)
  - Sigmoid (S shaped) portion of colon removed
  - Appendix removed
  - Three feet of small intestine removed
  - Lymph nodes in pelvic area and lower abdomen removed
  - Peritoneum (sac which encloses the organs of the abdominal cavity) removed
  - Scraping of diaphragm
- Tues. night / Wed. day, June 27 – Carol in ICU
- Wed., June 27 – 11 pm, Carol moved to hospital room
- Tues., July 10 (two weeks later) – Carol discharged from hospital
- Fri., July 13 – in Emergency Room all day due to complications
- Wed., July 18 – meets with Medical Oncologist re: chemotherapy strategy
- Fri., July 20 – in Urgent Care all day due to complications
- Sun., July 22 – back in Emergency Room all day, re-admitted to hospital
- Tues., July 24 – discharged from hospital
- Thurs., July 26 – meets with Primary Care Physician
- Fri., July 27 – meets with Gynecologic Oncologist, later with Urologist; decision reached: next week – chemotherapy to begin
- Tues., July 31 – meets with Medical Oncologist
- Mon., Aug 6 – meeting with Medical Oncologist
- Tues. or Wed., Aug. 7 or 8 – Chemotherapy (tentatively) to begin
- Sat., Aug. 11 – Carol's birthday

