Helping people find and follow
Jesus seven days a week.

Position: Kids Ministry Director

Location: La Mesa, CA

Skyline Church seeks a dynamic Kids Ministry Director to guide kids, birth to fifth grade, to “find and follow Jesus seven days a week” and cultivate a ministry to grow in alignment with Skyline’s core values and identities.

The core values of Skyline Church fuel their strategy for living out the mission. The Kids Ministry Director will develop these values in their personal life and create a professional environment that permeates these values:

- Found People Find People
- Growing People Change
- You Can’t Out Give God
- You’ll Never Walk Alone
- Saved People Serve People

With a centerpiece playground at the entrance to the church, Skyline is focused on families. Every weekend, 700-850 kids participate in the Skyline Kid’s programs. The Kids Ministry Director will oversee the growth of this vital ministry - in the curriculum, in volunteer recruitment and retention, and in casting vision for the future. Skyline Church desires the Kids Ministry Director to dream big, creatively expanding this ministry through gratitude, commitment, strong work ethic, accountability, trust, and love.

Skyline Church seeks to reach the San Diego community through each member’s personal relational network. The Kids Ministry Director will invest in the unique relationships God places around them. The Kids Ministry Director will also cultivate a strong professional network of volunteers and staff within the children’s ministry. They will lead their dedicated team with humility and grace, recruit high-level leaders, and encourage passion and excitement for the ministry.
